Dear Sir,

Order of Competition Commission of India (CCI) and subsequent appeal pending before Supreme Court.

We refer to our letters dated 3rd February 2022, 2nd December 2022 and 14th August 2023 regarding the above subject matter.

It may be recalled that the CCI had in February 2022 issued its order against MRF Limited, four other Indian tyre manufacturers and also the Automotive Tyre Manufacturers Association, for breach of the Competition Act, 2002 during the year 2011-12. The Commission had imposed a penalty of Rs. 622.09 Crores on MRF Limited (apart from penalties levied on others).

An appeal was preferred against the above order before the National Company Law Appellate Tribunal (NCLAT) and NCLAT had in December 2022 disposed off the appeal by remanding the matter back to CCI for review after hearing the parties.

Against this Order of the NCLAT, CCI had filed an appeal before the Supreme Court and the same is pending.

In the meantime, MRF Limited had also filed an appeal before the Supreme Court against the Order of NCLAT since NCLAT has, after giving categorical findings in favour of the Appellants (i.e. Tyre Companies and its association), instead of allowing the appeals, erroneously remanded the same back to CCI for review.

MRF's appeal came up for hearing today and the Supreme Court has ordered notice and tagged the appeal along with the appeal filed by the CCI.

The above information is being submitted in compliance with Clause 8.2 of para B of Part A of Schedule III of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 read with SEBI circular dated 13th July, 2023.

Kindly take the same on record.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully
For MRF LIMITED
